Notes:

---

From Records for Primitive Methodist Circuit -

Place of birth - Longworth, Berkshire.

Father's occupation is given as carpenter

Occupation Notes: Cannot remember the source of this information

Occupation Notes: Cannot remember the source of this information

Death Notes: From Death Certificate -

Cause - Purulent Bronchitis, Uraemia due to arteriosclerosis and hypertension

Place - King George Hospital, Ilford, Essex

Address - 79 Glade Court, The Glade, Ilford, Essex *

Informant - G M Collie, daughter, 130 Caterham Avenue, Barkingside

His daughter, Gladys, said that he fell while hanging out the washing and was taken to hospital, where he died a few days later. I was told, probably by Mum, that he had broken his hip, but there is nothing in the death cert to confirm this. His wife died partly from a broken hip so there may have been some confusion of the two deaths.

(* Glade Court demolished - new flats)

Marriage Notes: From copy marriage certificate -

Place - Primitive Methodist Chapel, Knights Hill Road, Lambeth, London *

Ages - Jonathan Herbert, 25 and Margaret Ann, 24

Status - Bachelor and Spinster

Occupations - Pickler (Journeyman) and None

Addresses - 15a Eden Road, West Norwood, London** and 73 Church Row, Limehouse, London

Fathers - George Jeffries, Master House Decorator and John Fisher, Journeyman Shipwright.

Witnesses - John Fisher and Rose Jeffries.

* The chapel seems to have been on the corner of Knight's Hill and Rothschild Street and became a warehouse before being demolished.
